EQUINE ASSOCIATED ACTIVITIES AND THERAPY (EAAT)

Thank you for your interest in Praying Hands Ranch (PHR) Equine Associated Activities and Therapy (EAAT). PHR is a member of PATH Intl, (Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International). We comply with all PATH, Intl safety regulations, using PATH certified riding instructors and trained volunteers as side walkers and horse leaders.

We are enclosing the necessary forms to be filled out to be a participant in PHR programs. We ask that you complete all the forms before your first lesson and email them to us at info@prayinghandsranch.org Our instructors need time to evaluate the individual needs of each client to choose an appropriate equine partner and create a lesson plan. Forms must be complete, and payment received before participation in EAAT can begin.

All students must wear riding helmets. We prefer students to purchase their own helmets for ultimate safety and perfect fit. Helmets must be certified for safety by American Society for Testing and Materials – Safety Equipment Institute (ASTM-SEI).

For safety reasons supervision must be provided for clients under age 18 while waiting to begin their lessons.

Weather can be cool and changeable. Please make sure clients are dressed appropriately for riding in the indoor and outdoor riding arenas. Layers of clothing are helpful. Although our indoor arena is heated in cold weather but gloves are helpful. Only closed toed shoes and long non-slippery pants are allowed for riding.

We reserve the right to decline services to any client, if EAAT is contraindicated for safety reasons.
